5 Prayers for Depression. I've been a chaplain for 9 years and I've been married for just as long to my wife, the Rev. Jessica Shields. We have two vibrant, engaging daughters: Abigail, 6 and Morgan, 3. I enjoy my life, my vocation, and I still live with depression. My depression first surfaced for me in high school, the year my older sister went away to college and my best friend moved away to another school. At that time, my only understanding of mental health treatment was the "padded room" I saw in my elementary school, to keep children with special needs and some with mental conditions from hurting themselves or others. Prayers For Surviving Depression Paperback " August 1, 2004. by Kathryn James Hermes (Author). 4.5 out of 5 stars 17 ratings. Prayers for Depression. The feeling of worth is so powerful. Without the feeling of worth, one can begin to feel hopeless. Depression is often viewed as a weakness that can be remedied with an attitude adjustment. But in reality, it is more than just a slump or a period of sadness. There are some people who truly have mental illnesses. There are some people that have chemical imbalances in their brains and it's not their fault. It can stem from their upbringing, their influences or just simply a bad luck of the draw. Mental illness and depression is not a choice. It is something that occurs over time. If you or someone you know is struggling with depression, seek professional help immediately. There is absolutely A Prayer for Battling Depression. Dear Heavenly Father, Thank you that you never change, even when everything around me is changing and unpredictable.
