Why multicultural education is important? What problems does it aim to solve? These are extremely important questions, that should be considered by each. There are also some more specific goals of multicultural education: Promote cultural democracy in the society and schools in particular; Improve academic achievements of all students; Develop skills, attitudes, and knowledge necessary for functioning in the community; Gain cultural competency etc. It goes without saying that these goals are very important for all members of society but it is a fact that it will take years to achieve them with all those challenges faced by teachers in the multicultural classrooms. Multicultural education tries to provide students with educational experiences that enable them to maintain commitments to their community cultures as well as acquire the knowledge, skills, and cultural capital needed to function in the national civic culture and community. Multicultural theorists view academic knowledge and skills as necessary but not sufficient for functioning in a diverse nation and world.
