Regrettably, not all teachers are trained in the techniques of teaching reading. It is undoubtedly calls for a review of national policies for the training of teachers. It is particularly important in the light of the various skills and social issues to be addressed during the primary cycle of education.Â Teachers are the those directly responsible for creating and applying various techniques and strategies that lead to reading comprehension. They should, therefore, be aware of the factors and stages of development that affect a child's ability to read. Teachers must also be aware of the reading process in order to teach certain concepts appropriate to the child's maturity and ability.
