A Well-Tempered Mind, Using Music to Help Children Listen and Learn by Peter Perret and Janet Fox with a foreword by Maya Angelou March 2004, Dana Press. "That is what I think the woodwind quintet is doing. Our musicians are playing to a fundamental language of the brain. I recognized the incredible value of A Well-Tempered Mind in terms of helping students improve thinking, reading, and, of course, writing skills. Maya Angelou best expresses my thinking after reading Perret and Fox's book: "I pray the gift of this book, along with the gift of music, will herald the return of art in the classroom. The children need that and so does our world." Read more. 10 people found this helpful. Patricia A. Dixon.
