Make some fridge critters and involve your kids making at least one. Craft foam and a few clothespins are the important ingredients. Use the template provided in the link or create your own. Simply print out a plain printer paper then cut the pieces apart and trace onto the craft foam. This is a fun idea. A creative craft where you can add your special touch by making numerous variations. You can go with more expressions, hair, styles, googly eyes and more shapes of lips etc. And for that, you'll be required to have stuff like-clothespins, markers, yarn, scissors, glue, googly eyes, and template printed on card stock. Recycle creatively with these trash to treasure projects and craft ideas. Try a few with your little ones before hauling your recycling bin to the curb. Craft Create Cook. Rinse and save those leftover wooden popsicle sticks for craft time! Glue a few together for an easy base for a troll face. Add a tuft of faux fur hair and some googly eyes to finish the decoration. We love a good creative use for all those leftover shipping boxes, and this one does not disappoint. Snip out a few dinosaur torsos and legs, then slide them together using a simple cut-and-slot method. Bonus: Creating these 3D sculptures will help your little ones practice their design and planning skills. Crafts for critters. Collection by Mother Goth Baby Wares Last updated 1 day ago. 563.
