Lyrics "Ramones - I Believe In Miracles". I used to be on an endless run. Believe in miracles 'cause I'm one. I have been blessed with the power to survive. After all these years I'm still alive.Â Every day my time runs out. Lived like a fool, that's what I was about, oh I believe in miracles. I believe in a better world for me and you. Oh, I believe im miracles. I believe in a better world for me and you. Tattoo your name on my arm I always said my girl's my good luck charm. I believe in miracles, baby I believe in you I believe in miracles, baby I believe in you They say the day is ending Let's watch the sun go down And plan a holiday for two For all eternity We will ride a cloud so you can see The world I created just for you Oh, I saw you standing on the. street I wanted to meet just stop a while You give me smile to say hello (Ooh, hoo, hoo) You make me feel so good inside That I realised I could not hide The feeling that came when you failed to say I believe in miracles, I believe in miracles, I believe in miracles Don't you? I BELIEVE IN MIRACLES tells the story of a footballing miracle, for the most part achieved without spending vast amounts of money. In 1974 Brian Clough was sacked as manager of Leeds United after only 45 days ( a subject explored in Peter Morgan's THAT DAMNED UNITED). At a low point in an otherwise distinguished career, he took over at Nottingham Forest, then a mid-table Second Division club with few aspirations. Within a short time he not only secured promotion to the old First Division, but took the club to two consecutive triumphs in the European Champions Cup.
