DiYanni gives excellent explanation and great examples of poems, plays, and short stories in his book. I actually bought this book for a Lit. class and I knew I would hate the class and the book when I saw how 'big' the book was. Turns out I loved them both; and DiYanni in my opinion is an excellent author. This book is a great read for pleasure as well as study. Informative. Published by Thriftbooks.com User , 20 years ago. This book not only contains a lot of excellent literature, but it also gives instruction on how to read and analyze literature more effectively. Used this to teach a dual enrollment English 112 class and found it to be a great collection. Has some great in-depth poetry sections. And the selection of short stories was wonderful. The drama section includes some nice, succinct plays. My students were pleasantly surprised by how much they enjoyed readings from this text. flag 1 like · Like · see review. This wasn't a cover to cover read, but I spent many months in Laos working my way through the fiction, poetry, drama and associated criticism. Makes me wish i'd done a literature degree. flag Like · see review.
