Summary of Content: A concise French-grammar review and extensive practice exercises make this book an appropriate tool for the intermediate and the advanced level students who want to master or review core French language skills. The beginner with limited French knowledge may benefit from the grammar topics presented in English. Each grammatical concept is explained and then illustrated with sentence examples; more than 400 exercises with answer keys allow learners to apply this knowledge in everyday conversation. Vocabulary boxes provide the terms and expressions that are needed to help learners converse in French. Also included are "culture notes," authentic documents, vocabulary boxes, and verb charts, as well as a full answer key and index. The CD-ROM contains audio exercises that re-create authentic situations and develop listening skills. It also includes Diagnostic and Review Tests with 180 exercises to determine the learners' skills and monitor their progress and 200 varied exercises that cover all aspects of grammar.
