Critical Essays The Confessions and Autobiography. At its most basic, an autobiography is the story of a person's life, written by that person. It is sometimes said that Augustine invented the modern autobiography. Augustine did not simply establish a pattern; he produced a work whose influence was so pervasive that all later autobiographers were affected by it, either positively or negatively. (The most famous example of a reaction against Augustine's Confessions appears in the Confessions of Jean-Jacques Rousseau, the French Romantic writer and philosopher.) Reviewed in the United States on October 3, 2019. Verified Purchase. As a lover of the older movies and the actors who star in them, I was so very pleased when this book arrived today. It is in excellent condition and I love that I didnâ€™t have to wait very long before it arrived in my mailbox. Thank you!Â Great read, as an actor I haven't been able to put this down. Laurence was such an amazing person. Note that I bought the older version as I like my books somewhat aged.
