

The Woollen Industry

By Chris Aspin

Shire Publications Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Woollen Industry, Chris Aspin, Most places in Britain have had some connection with the woollen industry. For several hundred years, it was Britain's principal source of wealth and provided more jobs than all the other industries put together. The country's fortunes were largely dependent on the wool trade. The English language has been enriched by many phrases derived from the trade - 'dyed in the wool', 'spinning a yarn', 'on tenterhooks' - and many thousands of people owe their surnames to ancestors who were websters, weavers, fullers, tuckers, walkers, listers and so on. This book traces the history of wool in Britain from Prehistoric times to the present day and uses many previously unpublished illustrations to illuminate its story.

This (revised) study seeks to examine the rise, expansion, and ultimate decline of the Italian wool-based textile industries over a period of six centuries (from ca. 1100 to ca. 1700). The Woolen Industry makes varieties of cloth with different types of wool. By using long fibers of Merinos, worsted clothes are produced. Tweed, Blankets, Flannel are produced by using short fibers called woolen clothes. Germany produces fine wool but does not meet the need of local woolen industry. Therefore, Australia, South Africa, New Zealand, and Argentina fulfill its wool needs. In Germany, most of the woolen mills are located at Saxony, Westphalia and Ruhr region. The main source of information on the Welsh woollen industry is the book The Welsh Woollen Industry by J. Geraint Jenkins (Cardiff, 1969). Two important reports are also available: Report on a survey of the Welsh Textile Industry by William P. Crankshaw (Cardiff, 1927) and Rural Industries Bureau Survey of Welsh Mills (unpublished, 1947). Researching ancestry and mill buildings is not straightforward! We do not possess comprehensive records of all Welsh woollen mills or the families that owned and ran woollen "woollen" BrE woolen AmE [ˈwʊlən] adj [only before noun] 1.) made of wool = "wool" a woollen scarf 2.) relating to making cloth from wool – the woollen industry – a woollen mill | Dictionary of contemporary English.
